

GRAMMY® nominated group OneRepublic at the 30th anniversary of the Top of the Mountain Closing Concert in Ischgl

On 3 May 2025, the Top of the Mountain Closing Concert featuring Global hitmakers OneRepublic will take place on the Ischgl Stage in the Silvretta Arena Ischgl/Samnaun. The event begins at 1:00 pm. This concert marks the grand finale of a successful winter season and celebrates the 30th anniversary of the renowned concert series.

The legendary Top of the Mountain Closing Concert celebrates its 30th anniversary this year, once again attracting guests from around the globe to Ischgl. With OneRepublic, one of the most successful groups in the world, the stage at 2,320 metres above sea level will transform into a hub of music and emotion. The GRAMMY® nominated band, who have amassed over 5 billion streams on Spotify alone, and are known for Global hits such as “Counting Stars”, “Apologize” and “I Ain’t Worried” promises an unforgettable end to the winter season. Admission to the concert is included with a ski pass valid for four or more days. Day visitors can purchase a day ski pass for 145 Euro on the day of the concert, which provides access to both the concert and unlimited skiing in one of the Alps' most renowned ski resorts.

Since 1995, the Top of the Mountain concert series has delighted audiences with world-class performers and extraordinary concerts in the heart of the Silvretta Arena Ischgl/Samnaun. This year’s anniversary concert featuring OneRepublic adds another milestone to the history of this iconic event.
