

PRESS INFORMATION

Kings of Leon to perform at Ischgl season final

Kings of Leon will perform at the grand finale of the Ischgl ski season 21/22. Winter sports enthusiasts will flock to see the American rock band live in the ski area on April 30 at the legendary "Top of the Mountain Closing Concert" at 2,320 meters above sea level. Concert admission is included in the day ski pass.

For the season finale on April 30, 2022, Multi-Platinum & Grammy award winning band, Kings of Leon will rock the "Top of the Mountain Closing Concert." The open-air concert on the legendary "Ischgl Stage" starts at 13.00. Expect a set with all the band's many hits and songs from all eight of their albums. Against the backdrop of the snow-covered Silvretta Arena, this will be a unique and certainly unforgettable concert experience. The day ski pass for Ischgl/Samnaun is also the ticket to the concert. 1, 2 or 3-day ski passes are available on site for 125, 140 or 160 euros with a guest card from the TVB Paznaun-Ischgl. For all other multi-day tickets, the regular ski pass prices apply. Kings of Leon are not only the grand finale to the Ischgl ski season but also the perfect finish of the new event series "Spring Blanc", which provides very special ski moments and a colourful program full of culinary delights and music April 2nd to May 1st. The Silvretta Arena slopes are open to winter sports enthusiasts up to and including May 1, 2022. All infos: here.

Kings of Leon

Since their debut in 2003, Kings of Leon ((Caleb (guitar/vocals), Nathan (drums), Jared (bass) and Matthew Followill (guitar)) have released eight albums (Youth & Young Manhood (2003), Aha Shake Heartbreak (2004), Because of the Times (2007), Only by the Night (2008), Come Around Sundown (2010), Mechanical Bull (2013), WALLS (2016), and When You See Yourself (2021)). The band has sold over 20 million albums and nearly 40 million singles worldwide. Known for their rousing live performances, Kings of Leon have headlined all the world's biggest and most prestigious festivals, including Glastonbury, Coachella, multiple Lollapalooza', Roskilde, as well as Rock im Park, Nova Rock and St. Gallen, to name but a few.

Spring Blanc - Skifun until the beginning of May

Whether you are a passionate skier, sun worshipper, gourmet or music lover - the new event series "Spring Blanc" provides numerous reasons to welcome spring on the white slopes of Ischgl. On the program: world-class live performances with Simply Red (02.04), the No Angels (10.04), Max Mutzke (17.04) and Kings of Leon (30.04) at the Top of the Mountain Concerts on the Idalp and the Spring Snow Festival on Alp Trida. Event highlights such as sun.downer on the Pardatschgrat, unlimited.cuisine on the Flimjoch, dine.around through Ischgl's gourmet kitchens and mountain.breakfast on the Pardatschgrat. In addition, visitors enjoy sun, mountains and perfect descents, whether piste, powder or firm. All info: here.

Spring Blanc dates one shouldn't miss:

02.04.2022	Top of the Mountain Spring Concert: Simply Red
08.04.2022	sun.downer
10.04.2022	International Spring Snow Festival Alp Trida: No Angels
16.04.2022	unlimited.cuisine
16.04 - 24.04.2022	dine.around
17.04.2022	Top of the Mountain Easter Concert: Max Mutzke
22.04.2022	sun.downer
24.04.2022	mountain.breakfast
30.04.2022	Top of the Mountain Closing Concert: Kings of Leon

Note: All announced events are subject to the measures of the Austrian federal government against the coronavirus pandemic! As responsible hosts, we naturally carry the respective official requirements and inform continuously about current safety and health measures.

Further information at www.ischgl.com.

March 2022

Direct image downloads here: TOM Closing Concert 2022

Copyright © TVB Paznaun-Ischgl (except when stated differently)

All texts and images are available for free download at www.ischgl.com/Presse.